NEXT SUNDAY'S READINGS

Isaiah 49:14-15 / 1 Corinthians 4:1-5
Matthew 6:24-34

FAMILY PERSPECTIVE - Giving the shirt off your back, turning the other cheek or walking/driving the extra mile is normal stuff in families. We do that for one another. Today's gospel reminds us all --- people, even those we don't like, are our brothers and sisters. Our family should prepare us to be FAMILY to others.

*****

SICK OF THE PARISH – Please keep our members in your thoughtful prayers.

Susan Goughnour, Fred & Yvonne Staub, Kenneth Williams, Don & Roxey Myers, Helen & Laverne Lawrence, Keira Slonaker, Polly Renaut, John Feiser, Dorothy Schlaline, Doris Pohlman, Marilyn Drummer, Maria Maxwell, Louise Snoots, Norma Woerner, Theron Menges, Bob Kline, Alice Williams, Kathleen Krepps, Carl Ramskow, Brenda Freed, Micheline Starcher, Louise Peters, Shannon Duff, Ken Jacoby, Judy Goley, Francis Kuhn and Deborah "Sue" Duty.

*****

IN THE CHARITY OF YOUR PRAYERS, please pray for the repose of the soul of Helen Behe, mother of Betsy Miriello, who died last week.

SCRIPTURE REFLECTION

The last two teachings in the Sermon on the Mount deal with love of enemies. We should not look at "an eye for an eye" as an inordinately strict punishment. It is actually meant to limit acts of revenge by making sure the punishment is not excessive but fits the crime. However, Jesus asks his followers to take a different approach by resisting retaliation altogether. The response to a stronger person who slaps us on the cheek, takes us to court, or demands a service of us is not to resist. Similarly, for a weaker person, such as a beggar or borrower, we are to give him or her what he or she asks for. Those who are called to the Kingdom of Heaven are to go beyond the way the world usually works and serve God's kingdom here on earth.

The other difficult demand of those who are called to the kingdom is to embrace the enemy. There is no command in the Old Testament to hate individuals in a personal or vindictive way. But there is a religious stance that calls one to hate evil and to distance oneself from those who participate in evil. In contrast, Matthew emphasizes that love of God and love of neighbor are the fundamental commands on which all else depend. Because God's love is unconditional, we are to strive to love as God does, though, of course, it is challenging. Is it even possible?

The key is in the final verse. We are to be perfect as our heavenly father is perfect. We are not to be perfect as in doing everything correctly, that is, as in being absolutely morally correct. We are to be perfect as in striving to reach the completeness we are called to in the Kingdom of Heaven. Attempting to love our enemies is part of striving for that completeness.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

7th Sunday in Ordinary Time

1. If you are a Catholic, who is divorced and not remarried, did you know that you are free to receive Holy Communion at Mass? Of course, the same requirement applies to you, as it applies to all Catholics – if you are conscious of serious (mortal) sin, you must go to Confession (Reconciliation) first before receiving the Eucharist. The reason for this is that it is divorce AND subsequent remarriage without an annulment that is the impediment, not simply divorce in and of itself. If you have any further questions about this, please let me know.
2. Most often when we think of making a gift to the church, we think of our weekly offertory, which is considered to be a sacrificial percentage of one's income. Here at IHM, we have many families who take seriously the call to "sacrificial giving", for which I am so very grateful! However, there are other options of financial giving that can be a means of assisting our parish monetarily, which you may not have considered. In this regard, you might prayerfully consider leaving our parish a bequest in your Will or Living Trust. Additionally, you might consider a notation in an obituary for memorial contributions to be made to our parish. For further information on advanced options such as making a gift of stock, IRA charitable rollovers, Charitable Gift Annuities, or various types of trusts, please contact the Diocesan Office of Development at (717) 657-4804 or development@hbgdiocese.org. Thank you for your ongoing generosity and support of our parish!
3. Lent is coming soon! Ash Wednesday is March 1st. We all know the things that make us happy, but we don't always do them. Lent is an opportunity to change that. This year we invite you to do something different. From Ash Wednesday to Easter, you'll get short, inspirational videos from Matthew Kelly and personal reflections from Dynamic Catholic team members that will help you identify what stands between you and happiness . . . and what to do about it. God bless you and your week

GIFT OF CHARITY – We recently helped a refugee from Congo, through our Charity funds and along with Catholic Charities, to assist him in getting established and to integrate into the community of the United States. May we all continue to show others comfort and strength in their times of need.

THAT MAN IS YOU is the perfect 90 minutes to start your weekend. The men of Immaculate Conception, Immaculate Heart of Mary and Sacred Heart currently participating in That Man Is You program, wish to invite our fellow parish men ages 18 years and older to join us each Saturday at 8 AM in The Immaculate Conception school cafeteria. It is never too late to join in this transformational program that has touched the lives of thousands of men across 40 states and in 400 parishes. Each week we watch a 30-minute video on issues relevant to men today. This is followed by one hour of discussion and fellowship in which we journey as brothers in Christ, learning the Catholic faith and how to apply it to the world today. Feel free to walk-in any Saturday and see what the program is all about. You may also contact Pete Socks at pete.socks@gmail.com or 717-624-1212 for more details.

Would you like to help couples preparing for the sacrament of marriage? The Diocese of Harrisburg is in need of local couples to serve as presenters for God's Plan for a Joy-Filled Marriage. This Saturday retreat is an essential part of the marriage preparation process. It consists of presentations on: God's Plan for Marriage; the Basics of Marriage in the Church; Marital Sexuality; and Natural Family Planning. There is a training coming up this spring to prepare the new presenter couples. Requirements are: being committed to the Church's teaching on marriage, sexuality, and life; having a heart for couples preparing for marriage – warm, engaging, and sympathetic; and public speaking skills, or the ability to grow in these skills. Even if you have never volunteered for something in the church before, this may be your opportunity to serve in such an important ministry that is desperately in need of presenter couples. Please talk to Fr. Marcoe for more information.

CDCCW LENTEN RETREAT REMINDER – All women of the parish are invited to attend the District Council of Catholic Women’s Annual Lenten Retreat on Saturday, Apr. 1, 2017 at St. Joseph’s Church on 5125 Grandview Rd., Hanover. Our Presenter will be Father Ryan Fischer. The Retreat is from 12 Noon to 3 PM with a half hour break for refreshments and fellowship. This event is offered at no charge but a freewill offering is welcome. NO PRE-REGISTRATION is necessary. Please put this Lenten event on your calendar now and invite your friends to join in. We look forward to seeing you! Contact Donna Lynch with any questions (717-309-2909, donnal315@comcast.net.)

RACHEL’S VINEYARD RETREAT for Post Abortion Healing – This is an opportunity to examine your abortion experience, identify the ways that the loss has impacted you in the past and present, and helps to acknowledge any unresolved feelings that many struggle with after abortion. Because of the emotional numbness and secrecy that often surrounds an abortion experience, conflicting emotions both during and after the event may remain unresolved. These buried feelings can surface later and may be symptoms of post abortion trauma. Married couples, mothers, fathers, grandparents and siblings of aborted children, as well as persons who have been involved in the abortion industry have come to Rachel’s Vineyard in search of peace and inner healing. The weekend is a lot of work but yields a fruitful harvest for all who are willing to labor there. Please accept this gift of healing as only our Lord can offer. Come and let the healing begin: April 21-23, 2017. Please contact Becky at Undeatefcourage@gmail.com. All inquiries and registrations are strictly confidential.

FUSION NEWS – Fusion is Immaculate Heart of Mary’s youth group; open to all teens in grades 8 to 12. For information, please call or email Paul Oakes at 717-259-0611 ext. 8 or poakes@hbgdiocese.org.

Thank you all for attending Youth Night. Saturday, February 25th, is our next Youth Night. In March, Youth Nights will be on the 11th and 25th.

The Living Stations of the Cross will continue at St. Joseph on Sunday, February 12th from 2:30 to 4PM. We are still in need of actors! Roles to fill: Jesus, Judas, Barabbas, Pilate, Centurion, a Soldier, Women in the Crowd, John, & Apostles. Anyone can play these parts. If you have younger brothers or sisters who’d like to act, they’re welcome to join us too. And if you don’t like to act, we’re in need of musicians and “techies”. Also, Fusion can help build props and set pieces. If anyone needs a car ride, please call or email Paul. Service hours will be provided!

This weekend, Fusion will be attending Mount 2000. Please pray for us.

STEWARDSHIP MISSION – This weekend is President’s Day weekend – a time to be thankful for our country and to consider how our faith makes us better citizens. In this time when religious faith is sometimes under attack or marginalized, it’s even more important to be able to explain our faith to others. An easy way to share our “good news” with others is to pick up a CD/book/booklet from our Resource display and give to someone you know who needs to hear Christ’s saving message. Thank you for your generous donations that help to support the mission of Stewardship: A Mission of Faith and Lighthouse Catholic Media to bring these recourses to more parishes.
