FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord

1. He is risen! He is risen indeed! A very happy and blessed Easter Sunday to you and all your loved ones. May the joy of Jesus, who once was dead, but who now lives for ever, be in your hearts for the 50 days of this joyful season and beyond!

2. A special thank you to all those who assisted in any way with the liturgies during Holy Week. There is always much work to be done for and during these Masses and services, and I appreciate all those helped make them truly inspiring and beautiful.

3. Also, a special thank you to Fusion and Charitable Children for organizing this year's Easter egg hunt, held on Easter Sunday. "What's Charitable Children", you say? This ministry offers families with children up through middle school opportunities to help others in need. The group will participate in activities such as visiting personal care residents to hand out crafts and sing songs, and delivering food baskets to parish shut-ins. Please contact the parish office for more information. Monica Hoey is the coordinator.

4. The Second Sunday of Easter is also known as Divine Mercy Sunday – celebrating the unfathomable riches of God's infinite mercy towards us. Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary Parish in McSherrystown will have a special service that day. Please see this bulletin for more information.

5. Join us at our parish Ministry Fair in the social hall the weekend of April 14 and 15 after each of the Masses for a celebration of the many ministries and organizations supported by our fellow parishioners here at Immaculate Heart of Mary Parish. Our theme is Growing our Faith Family. Consider ways that you can be more fully involved in the life of our parish family, or just come to see all the wonderful things going on here at IHM -- either way, you're welcome. There will be good food and a festive atmosphere! In preparation for the Ministry Fair, we invite you to review the list of all the ministries and organizations found in our updated "Parish Pastoral Booklet" (copies of which can be found on the ledge behind the last pew in the church, or found online at our parish website – www.ihmparadise.org).

Please note that in today's bulletin, a "Talent and Ministry" form is included, found on the back side of the Ministry Fair flyer. We invite you to prayerfully discern what special skills and talents God might be calling you to share with our parish family. Through the gifts of time and talent that our parishioners so generously share, we are able to truly be the hands and feet of Jesus Christ in our parish and community. Then, the weekend after the Ministry Fair, we will have "Participation Sunday". We'll invite you to fill out the Talent & Ministry forms after the homily (don't worry, we'll have new copies of these in the pews), and then ask you to return them in the "2nd collection". You will be contacted shortly afterwards by coordinators of the group(s) you selected to provide you with further information, or to welcome you to that particular ministry or organization.

God bless you and your week. Fr. Marcoe

LOST AND FOUND – Please check our Lost and Found bin in the sacristy for any items you may have left in Church. Any unclaimed items will be discarded.

CHILDREN'S CHAPEL – For everyone's information, especially for those who may be new to our parish, there is a so-called Children's Chapel or Cry Room here in the Church. It's located in the front left corner of the church, where a restroom is also located. As a parish family, we want children and families to be welcome here at Mass, and so it's important to have an appropriate place in the church for babies and young children when they get fussy and need extra attention. We really want to encourage parents to use this space to tend to their children as needed. Please, feel free to just get up when need be from the body of the church, and utilize this space. Then you can better tend to your children without feeling like you're being watched. And this will also allow the other parishioners to be able to more fully focus on worshipping.

CREMATION

Since 1963, Catholics have been allowed to choose cremation over burial as a means of laying a loved one to rest. Cremation is a popular choice since it is less expensive and more manageable than a full burial. Cremation, like death, is final. But that doesn't mean you won't have second thoughts. Susan Skiles Luke, a marketing consultant in Columbia, Missouri, had her mother cremated and buried in a family plot. Now, she wishes it was her mother's body and not just the cremated remains that was in the grave. "When I go there, which isn't often, I want to feel like her body is under ground, right alongside my grandparents and beloved great aunt, all dressed up in their Sunday best..."

Although cremation is permitted, some Catholics have not been dealing properly with their loved ones remains. Common practices include scattering ashes, parting ashes out to friends and relatives, and keeping the ashes in a common area, such as a living room. While scattering ashes may seem romantic to some (but is also contrary to Catholic teaching), there's something to be said about keeping your loved one in one place, and then marking that place with a name. "We mark the graves of our loved ones with a headstone to memorialize them, so we don't forget them". When visiting that person's grave, just seeing his or her name can give comfort.

To instruct the faithful in this regard, the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith has issued updated guidelines. According to these, burial is still preferred, but cremation is an option. When a loved one has been cremated, their ashes must be kept intact, the same as one would treat a body. The ashes may not be separated or scattered. Instead, they should remain in a proper vessel that is interred in a proper place, such as a cemetery or church. Finally, the document stresses that Catholics who choose cremation for reasons contrary to the faith, (e.g., to have their ashes scattered) must be denied a Christian funeral.

In the end, whether cremation or burial is chosen, we await from the grave the second coming of Jesus Christ and the blessed Resurrection of the Dead.
