Luke 24:13-35

*****

FAMILY PERSPECTIVE - "Whose sins you forgive, are forgiven" means the grudges we carry only make us miserable. The Kingdom of God begins in your home where children learn the paths to peace promised in today's gospel through merciful and forgiving demonstrations by their parents.

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS – "Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained." Is God calling you to be an instrument of God's mercy to others as a priest, sister or brother? Call Father Brian Wayne at (717)657-4804 ext. 282 or email frbwayne@hbgdiocese.org.

SCRIPTURE REFLECTION

Today Jesus greets his disciples with the gift of peace and the gift of the Holy Spirit. In doing so, Jesus commissions his disciples to continue the work that he has begun: "As the Father sent me, so I send you." During the meeting, Jesus also shows the integral connection between forgiveness of sins and the gift of the Holy Spirit.

The story of Thomas illustrates our Christian experience today: We are called to believe without seeing. In fact, all Christians after the first witnesses have been called to believe without seeing. Thomas's doubt is hardly surprising: the news of Jesus' appearance was incredible to the disciples who had seen him crucified and buried. Thomas' human nature compelled him to want hard evidence that the Jesus who appeared to his disciples after his death was indeed the same Jesus who had been crucified. Thomas is given the opportunity to act on that desire. He is our witness that Jesus is really risen. We are among those who are "blessed" because we believe without having seen.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Divine Mercy Sunday (2nd Sunday of Easter)

1. This Sunday, April 23rd, the universal Church celebrates Divine Mercy Sunday. Our risen Lord Jesus Himself appeared to St. Faustina Kowalska, a Polish nun (1905-1938) and spoke to her about God's Divine Mercy. These apparitions (which are recorded in her diary, Divine Mercy in my Soul) led the Church to establish this feast of mercy as a very special day when "all the divine floodgates through which graces flow are opened" (Diary 699). Our Lord made a great promise for this feast that all those souls who would go to Confession and then receive Him in Holy Communion on the Feast of Mercy would "obtain the complete forgiveness of sins and punishment" (699). The big banner located in the baptistery area of the church (up front) is the image of Divine Mercy, and the closest representation of what St. Faustina herself saw when Jesus appeared to her!

Our Lord also said to St. Faustina, "...I saw two roads. One was broad, covered with sand and flowers, full of joy, music and all sorts of pleasures. People were walking along it, dancing and enjoying themselves. They reached the end without realizing it. And at the end of the road there was a horrible precipice; that is, the abyss of hell. The souls fell blindly into it; as they walked, so they fell. And their number was so great that it was impossible to count them. And I saw the other road, or rather, a path, for it was narrow and strewn with thorns and rocks; and the people who walked along it had tears in their eyes, and all kinds of suffering befell them. Some fell down upon the rocks, but stood up immediately and went on. At the end of the road there was a magnificent garden filled with all sorts of happiness and all these souls entered there. At the very first instant they forgot all their sufferings." (153)

2. This Sunday, April 23rd, to celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday, Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary Parish in McSherrystown will have a special service that day. Please see this bulletin for more information.
3. A special thank you to all those who assisted in any way with the liturgies during Holy Week. There is always much work to be done for and during these Masses and services, and I appreciate all those helped make them truly inspiring and beautiful. Also, thank you for the cards and goodies that you gave me.
4. Next weekend (April 29/30), Fr. Brian Wayne, the Director of Vocations of the Diocese of Harrisburg, will be visiting our parish and preaching at all Masses. After each Mass, we will have a light reception in the social hall so you can go and ask him any questions or just talk to him. In particular, I would like to invite any boys and girls,

God bless you and your week.
Fr. Marcoe

CHILDREN'S CHAPEL – For everyone's information, especially for those who may be new to our parish, there is a so-called Children's Chapel or Cry Room here in the Church. It's located in the front left corner of the church, where a restroom is also located. As a parish family, we want children and families to be welcome here at Mass, and so it's important to have an appropriate place in the church for babies and young children when they get fussy and need extra attention. I really want to encourage parents to use this space to tend to your children as needed. Please, feel free to just get up when need be from the body of the church, and utilize this space. Then you can better tend to your children without feeling like you're being watched. And this will also allow the other parishioners to be able to more fully focus on worshipping.
