NEXT SUNDAY'S READINGS

Acts of the Apostles 2:1-11 / 1 Corinthians 12:3-7
John 20:19-23

FAMILY PERSPECTIVE - Our decisions create our style of living and also what kind of person we are. That's the awesome power of free will. As we celebrate Memorial Day it is a good time to ask ourselves, "How do I want to be remembered?" The power is in your hands, or rather in your decisions.

WE WELCOME Eva Grace Davis, daughter of Bradley & Cecilia Davis, into our parish family through the Sacrament of Baptism.

SCRIPTURE REFLECTION

Today's reading is a prayer, which appears at the conclusion of Jesus' Last Supper discourse. At the end of the prayer, Jesus is arrested in the garden. The prayer might be read as Jesus' final commendation of himself to the Father. In the prayer, Jesus also expresses care and concern for his disciples.

Jesus' prayer reaffirms the complete union between Jesus and the Father. In this prayer we learn that Jesus' life and ministry have been directed toward one purpose, revealing the Father. When his work is accomplished, Jesus is to return to the Father to be glorified.

Regardless of what happens to Jesus, Jesus and the Father are in charge. Even in the description of his death, Jesus does not simply die but instead hands over his spirit.

The disciples were chosen from the world to be in service to the world for its salvation. This salvation has been accomplished in Jesus because Jesus has revealed the Father to the world, but the disciples will be sent by Jesus to make both the Father and Jesus known to the world. Jesus' prayer is for the disciples' work in the world.

It's located in the front left corner of the church, where a restroom is also located. As a parish family, we want children and families to be welcome here at Mass, and so it's important to have an appropriate place in the church for babies and young children when they get fussy and need extra attention. I really want to encourage parents to use this space to tend to your children as needed. Please, feel free to just get up when need be from the body of the church, and utilize this space. Then you can better tend to your children without feeling like you're being watched. And this will also allow the other parishioners to be able to more fully focus on worshipping.
