Introduction

Dear parishioners of Immaculate Heart of Mary Parish,

While the pastor has ultimate responsibility for the parish, according to canon law and diocesan law, he is to have the assistance of parishioners in planning for the spiritual well-being of the parish.

In the most recent guidelines for Parish Pastoral Councils, then Bishop Joseph P. McFadden said “Parish Pastoral Councils are an essential element of parish life and an invaluable resource to pastors in providing good pastoral leadership for the overall life of the parish.” He went on to say: “In the parish we share one mission and together live out that mission through our worship and through the parish programs, ministries and activities. Everything that happens in the parish must be connected. Everyone must understand and experience this connectedness and common purpose.” And as Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI once stated, “We cannot communicate with the Lord if we do not communicate with one another.”

Our parish family is blessed with enthusiastic parishioners who have volunteered to serve on our Pastoral Council and give of their time and talent in assisting me in various ways in providing that leadership to carry out our parish's vision and mission statements. Such assistance generally takes the form of suggestions and other council they offer, acting as liaisons with the various parish ministries and organizations, and serving as representatives of the parish at large. Please take advantage of their office by approaching them with questions, suggestions, ideas, comments and other considerations for the good of our parish family.

The Parish Pastoral Council has also helped me in the compilation of this resource, the goal of which is to help all of our parishioners connect to the larger vision and mission of our parish. In other words – we all have a specific role to play in being part of the Body of Christ, the Church. As you read through these pages, I would ask you to ask yourself the question: “How is God calling me to intentionally follow and serve Him as a disciple of His Son, specifically here at Immaculate Heart of Mary?” May God continue blessing our great parish.

In Christ's love,
Father Marcoe

Vision Statement for Immaculate Heart of Mary Parish

Each member of our congregation has beliefs, wishes, and dreams which create the vitality and unique identity of our parish family. Acting as elected representatives of our parish, the Pastoral Council, along with our Pastor, Father Marcoe, envision our Immaculate Heart of Mary Parish to be “a vibrant, active, faith-filled community united as one holy parish family”.

Mission Statement for the Immaculate Heart of Mary Parish

In following the Catholic Church's teaching of the vision of Jesus Christ, and the hopes and dreams of our parish, the Pastoral Council, along with our Pastor, Father Marcoe, has articulated our parish's mission as follows: “Immaculate Heart of Mary is a Roman Catholic parish family called to be disciples of Jesus Christ, fostering spiritual growth in our worshipping community; encouraging greater participation in living and sharing the Catholic faith through prayer and action; and providing for the benefit of individuals, families, and the larger community.”

Our Mission Statement, in turn, has been “made flesh” through the goals and objectives that are laid out in our Parish Pastoral Plan.

Parish Pastoral Plan

"Under the direction of the pastor and in collaboration with the pastoral staff, the Parish Pastoral Council and the Parish Finance Council, the parish should develop a long range 3-5 year pastoral plan."

Under the direction of our pastor, Father Marcoe, each aspect of our parish Mission Statement will be accomplished through the goals, objectives, and activities of the various parish ministries and organizations coordinated under the individual Pastoral Council member's assigned missions.

Parish Pastoral Council

Following are excerpts from the letter of April 29, 2013 from Bishop of Harrisburg, Joseph P. McFadden, promulgating to Pastors and Parish Pastoral Councils, “Norms and Guidelines for Parish Pastoral Councils.”

Parish Pastoral Councils are an essential element of parish life and an invaluable resource to pastors in providing good pastoral leadership for the overall life of the parish. The role of the Parish Pastoral Council is to invite everyone in the parish into a closer relationship with God.

Each parish must establish areas of mission that encompass every goal and activity within the parish. The ministry of evangelization and spreading the good news of Jesus Christ is shared by all of us. May we continue to work to strengthen parish life and our service to the people of God.

All committees, groups, etc. in every aspect of parish life will be part of one of the mission areas of the Parish Pastoral Council. All committees, groups, etc. in every aspect of parish life must communicate and cooperate with the Parish Pastoral Council, which is responsible for evaluating the effectiveness of each organization and supporting each one as it carries out the parish mission statement, which is further delineated in our Parish Pastoral Plan.

Anyone wishing to attend a Parish Pastoral Council meeting is welcome to do so (some exceptions might be made for issues such as discussions pertaining to personnel issues or preliminary budget work). Parish Pastoral Council meeting dates are usually listed in the Bulletin.

Anyone wishing to address the Parish Pastoral Council on any topic may do so, but for sake of time and relevance to the Council, will need to contact the Parish Pastoral Council Chair or the Pastor first.

The basic functions of the Pastoral Council members

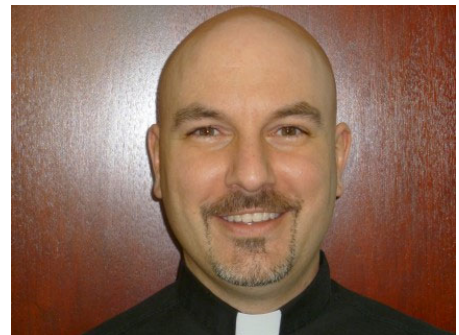

The Pastoral Council members contact each committee, ministry, or organization in their area of mission, and learn its goals, current activities, challenges, along with what help the Pastoral Council might be in meeting any challenges that group may have in meeting its objectives. This information will be conveyed to the Pastoral Council at each of their regular meetings.

Within each Pastoral Council member’s area of mission, the member will also collaborate with the pastor and the parish staff in implementing the priorities of the Pastoral Council and help ascertain and implement the diocesan norms in all areas of Mission.

RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults)

Stretching back to ancient times, the Church has always accompanied men and women that would like to become members of the Body of Christ. RCIA is the modern-day process in which people learn about the Catholic Church, with the possibility of receiving the Sacraments of Initiation. All inquiries are welcome. Participating in RCIA does not necessarily imply that reception into the Catholic Church is expected or mandatory.

Usher

This liturgical ministry involves interaction with the congregation at various liturgical celebrations. Ushers first greet parishioners upon entering the church. They conduct the collection during the Preparation of Gifts (offertory), assist with the procession during Holy Communion, and they distribute bulletins after Mass has ended. Ushers also assist members of the congregation with any needs they may have by providing them directions or answering questions. In general, they are helpful points of contact for information and assistance.
