FROM THE PASTOR’S DESK

Pentecost Sunday

1. On this Pentecost Sunday, we remember that at our baptism, and then in a deeper way, at our confirmation, we personally received the gift of the Holy Spirit into our lives. The Holy Spirit desires to accomplish good in our lives, and through us, in the lives of others. I invite you to pray the following prayer by Cardinal Mercier: “O Holy Spirit, beloved of my soul, I adore You. Enlighten me, guide me, strengthen me, console me. Tell me what I should do; give me Your orders. I promise to submit myself to all that You desire of me and to accept all that You permit to happen to me. Let me only know Your Will. Amen.”

2. Congratulations to our seniors from Delone, our other area high schools, and from various colleges and universities on your graduations! God bless you in all that lies ahead. (Parents — if you give me the name and email address of your son or daughter, I will add them to my list of IHM college students that I keep in touch with throughout the academic year).

3. This past Saturday, May 19th, four men were ordained to the transitional diaconate for the Diocese of Harrisburg. God willing, on June 2nd, six men will be ordained to the priesthood for our diocese! Let us keep praying for God to give us more shepherds for His Kingdom!

4. This week I will be away on my annual priest retreat. I will pray for all of you in a special way. Speaking of retreats, if you’ve never taken one before, I highly recommend it. It could be for a week, a weekend, or even just a day! There are lots of opportunities in our area, for example at Malvern (https://www.malvernmretreat.com/).

   God bless you and your week. Fr. Marcoe

NEW MOVIE ON POPE FRANCIS – There is a new film out entitled, “Pope Francis: A Man of His Word”. Here is an excerpt from the review from the Catholic News Agency: “Well-crafted, sometimes moving documentary in which the pontif largely speaks for himself, touching on a wide variety of topics of interest to believers and nonbelievers alike and setting out his vision for the future of the church. Filmmaker Wim Wenders, who also narrates, uses interviews with the pope as well as footage of his worldwide travels to give viewers an insight into his personality, thinking and influence. The result is a work of high quality that can be recommended for a wide range of age groups. Mature themes, some potentially upsetting images.”

HANDICAP PARKING – Please note that handicap parking spaces are available for parking near the social hall entrance to the Church. If you are attending the 11:15 AM Mass, in order to avoid the traffic associated with religious education letting out, the following two options are recommended: EITHER come in the EXIT lane BEFORE 11 AM, OR come in the usual entrance way AFTER approximately 11:07 AM.

CHILDREN’S CHAPEL – For everyone’s information, especially for those who may be new to our parish, there is a so-called Children’s Chapel or Cry Room here in the Church. It’s located in the front left corner of the church, where a restroom is also located. As a parish family, we want children and families to be welcome here at Mass, and so it’s important to have an appropriate place in the church for babies and young children when they get fussy and need extra attention. We really want to encourage parents to use this space to tend to their children as needed. Please, feel free to just get up when need be from the body of the church, and utilize this space. Then you can better tend to your children without feeling like you’re being watched. And this will also allow the other parishioners to be able to more fully focus on worshiping.

FLOWERS – Looking for a way to memorialize a loved one or celebrate a special occasion? A beautiful way would be to order flowers on the altar. Most weekends are available from now through the end of the year. Please call Anita in the parish office to make arrangements.

CREMATION

Since 1963, Catholics have been allowed to choose cremation over burial as a means of laying a loved one to rest. Cremation is a popular choice since it is less expensive and more manageable than a full burial. Cremation, like death, is final. But that doesn’t mean you won’t have second thoughts. Susan Skiles Luke, a marketing consultant in Columbia, Missouri, had her mother cremated and buried in a family plot. Now, she wishes it was her mother’s body and not just the cremated remains that was in the grave. “When I go there, which isn’t often, I want to feel like her body is under ground, right alongside my grandparents and beloved great aunt, all dressed up in their Sunday best…”

Although creation is permitted, some Catholics have not been dealing properly with their loved ones remains. Common practices include scattering ashes, parting ashes out to friends and relatives, and keeping the ashes in a common area, such as a living room. While scattering ashes may seem romantic to some (but is also contrary to Catholic teaching), there’s something to be said about keeping your loved one in once place, and then marking that place with a name. “We mark the graves of our loved ones with a headstone to memorialize them, so we don’t forget them”. When visiting that person’s grave, just seeing his or her name can give comfort.

To instruct the faithful in this regard, the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith has issued updated guidelines. According to these, burial is still preferred, but cremation is an option. When a loved one has been cremated, their ashes must be kept intact, the same as one would treat a body. The ashes may not be separated or scattered. Instead, they should remain in a proper vessel that is interred in a proper place, such as a cemetery or church. Finally, the document stresses that Catholics who choose cremation for reasons contrary to the faith, (e.g., to have their ashes scattered) must be denied a Christian funeral.

In the end, whether cremation or burial is chosen, we await from the grave the second coming of Jesus Christ and the blessed Resurrection of the Dead.
