FROM THE PASTOR’S DESK

The same Christ Life that we have held (and will hold again next year) here at IHM wrote this concerning the current Time of Widespread Shaking in the Catholic Church. I thought it worthy of sharing.

God bless you and your week – Fr. Marcoe

This is a time of widespread shaking in the Catholic Church. Not of persecution and imprisonment for the faith, as is the case in some nations. Rather, it is the revelations of homosexual activity among clergy, abuse in seminaries and parishes, pedophilia, and sinful cover-ups at the highest levels by some diocesan leadership. These continuing revelations have left many laity and clergy angry, sorrowful, ashamed, and confused. What shall we do?

The author of Hebrews exhorts us: “Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who promised is faithful. And let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good works, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day drawing near.” Hebrews 10:23-25

Here are a few things we can do as we walk through this storm together.

“He who promised is faithful.”

First, turn to Jesus. Cling to the Lord. Treasure Him in your heart. Every member of the Church is called to ongoing repentance and personal surrender to Jesus as Lord. He founded the Church. He continues to give us his Body and Blood. He gives us faithful brothers and sisters to walk with during times of trials. Turn to Jesus.

“Consider how to stir one another up to love and good works.”

Second, help one another to stand firm in love and good works. The Lord wants us to keep doing what we are always called to do—namely growing in loving God and our neighbors. We must continue to be witnesses of God’s merciful love in this season of the Church. One of the ways we do good works is by offering prayers for healing of the abused, and reparation of the sins of those who perpetrated these evils. This week Fr. Erik Arnold’s parish, Our Lady of Perpetual Help, held an evening of Adoration with prayer for the victims of abuse and reparation for the sins of those involved with the abuse.

“Do not neglect to meet together, as is the habit of some.”

Third, keep going to church and stay rooted in Christian community. The temptation is to drop out of the race, which we are called to run together. Some will say: “I’ll just go it alone, Jesus and me.” But we need one another precisely at times like this. The devil always tempts us in times of trial and sin to go off on our own. He wants to divide and isolate us. It’s the way a predator animal goes after its prey; like a wolf trying to drive a sheep off by itself for the kill. We need one another. “Encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day drawing near.”

Finally, encourage one another. Throughout the history of the Church there have been times of severe testing. Even today, brothers and sisters are imprisoned and martyred for their faith in Christ. In times of testing, Christians are reminded of the importance of encouraging one another, of imparting courage to one another. Please don’t forget to encourage your priests and bishops who are living godly lives. The Lord is with us in this time, and we pray that this would be a time of purification, repentance, and reform. May He continue to grant us grace to stay close to Him, to encourage one another, and bring many to know His saving love.

DON’T GET SCAMMED! Scammers are now posing as priests and other clergy. In this latest scam, you might receive an e-mail that appears to be from your Pastor or another priest that you may know. The scammer would ask you to help someone in need by purchasing a gift card, and then providing the code to that card to the scammer who is posing as clergy. Here’s how to protect from being scammed:

1. Know that scammers are out there. Be suspicious of any request for funds of any type via an e-mail message. Verify any request with a call to the person who supposedly sent it.
2. Know that any e-mail from a priest should be from a diocesan or parish e-mail account. Messages sent from free services, such Gmail or Yahoo, are more likely to be scammers.
3. Know that priests will NEVER ask for financial transactions via e-mail.

It’s located in the front left corner of the church, where a restroom is also located. As a parish family, we want children and families to be welcome here at Mass, and so it’s important to have an appropriate place in the church for babies and young children when they get fussy and need extra attention. We really want to encourage parents to use this space to tend to their children as needed. Please, feel free to just get up when need be from the body of the church, and utilize this space. Then you can better tend to your children without feeling like you’re being watched. And this will also allow the other parishioners to be able to more fully focus on worshiping.

CREMATION
Since 1963, Catholics have been allowed to choose cremation over burial as a means of laying a loved one to rest. Cremation is a popular choice since it is less expensive and more manageable than a full burial. Cremation, like death, is final. But that doesn’t mean you won’t have second thoughts. Susan Skiles Luke, a marketing consultant in Columbia, Missouri, had her mother cremated and buried in a family plot. Now, she wishes it was her mother’s body and not just the cremated remains that was in the grave. “When I go there, which isn’t often, I want to feel like her body is under ground, right alongside my grandparents and beloved great aunt, all dressed up in their Sunday best…”

Although creation is permitted, some Catholics have not been dealing properly with their loved ones remains. Common practices include scattering ashes, parting ashes out to friends and relatives, and keeping the ashes in a common area, such as a living room. While scattering ashes may seem romantic to some (but is also contrary to Catholic teaching), there’s something to be said about keeping your loved one in once place, and then marking that place with a name. “We mark the graves of our loved ones with a headstone to memorialize them, so we don’t forget them”. When visiting that person’s grave, just seeing his or her name can give comfort.

To instruct the faithful in this regard, the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith has issued updated guidelines. According to these, burial is still preferred, but cremation is an option. When a loved one has been cremated, their ashes must be kept intact, the same as one would treat a body. The ashes may not be separated or scattered. Instead, they should remain in a proper vessel that is interred in a proper place, such as a cemetery or church. Finally, the document stresses that Catholics who choose cremation for reasons contrary to the faith, (e.g., to have their ashes scattered) must be denied a Christian funeral.

In the end, whether cremation or burial is chosen, we await from the grave the second coming of Jesus Christ and the blessed Resurrection of the Dead.
